FOR PRESIDENT,

That uncrowned King of every Democratic heart,

SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

Mr. Tilden's companion in Victory and in Humiliation,

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Richard Reid, of Mt. Sterling, is a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, to succeed Judge Hargis—subject to the action of the Democracy of the First Appellate District.

The State Educational Association will meet in Louisville December 26, 27 and 28.

A son of Senator Mahone has been appointed to a first-class Senate committee clerkship.

Nearly $9,000 have already been subscribed toward next year's Exposition, at Louisville.

FRANK JAMES was taken to Gallatin, Mo., Friday, to answer the charge of murdering Banker Sheets, in 1869.

Doorkeeper Wintersmith has appointed J. W. Blackburn, of Frankfort, Ky., to a position in the Folding Department of the House.

The Postmaster General has directed that the old three and six-cent stamps and stamped envelopes be received in exchange for the new issues.

The town clock at Stanford, which hasn't stopped running twice in ten years, refused to recognize the standard time, and stopped twice in twenty-four hours.

When a new ruler is desired in Anam they do not resort to the ballot box. They simply administer a dose of cold poison to the King, and that settles the business.

At Cambridge, O., twelve saloon-keepers have been sentenced to pay fines aggregating $4,400, with terms of imprisonment aggregating 400 days, for violation of the Scott law.

A club of fifty young men in Denver propose to introduce knee-breeches in that town, and will introduce the fashion by appearing in these abbreviated pantaloons on and after Christmas.

SENATOR ANTHONY, of Vermont, who has just entered upon his fifth term in the Senate, has been elected President pro tem. He is in very bad health and not likely to hold the place long.

There were 19,525 persons killed by snakes in India, during the past twelve months. It strikes us that the citizens of India do not use the preventatives of snake poison like American citizens, and that they are away behind in point of civilization.

SPEAKER CARLISLE having been interviewed by J. C. Underwood, editor of the Cincinnati News-Journal, says emphatically that he is not a candidate for Senator, and that he will not permit his name to go before the Democratic caucus a such. That settles it.

SENATOR LAPHAM has introduced a bill into the Senate conferring the right of suffrage upon all persons over the age of twenty-one years, regardless of sex. The Danville Tribune has also announced for woman's suffrage. The grand old party grabs at every straw as it goes down.

GEN. McLELLAN hopes the Democrats will make a square issue on the tariff question next fall. Gov. Seymour thinks there should be a struggle for revenue reform. Senator McDonald says that revenue reform is necessarily one of the issues of 1884. Gov. Cleveland thinks the tariff issues will be very prominent in the canvass next year, and insists that Congress shall reduce the revenues. On the other hand, Govs. Hoadley, Pattison and Butler have nothing to say with regard to the tariff question.

The American Farmer.

To all new subscribers to the BOURBON NEWS who will pay us $2 in advance, between now and the first day of February, we will give a subscription to the American Farmer (price $1 per annum) in connection with the News for one year. We have perfected arrangements with the publishers of the American Farmer, of Fort Wayne, Ind., that enables us to offer our subscribers a first class Agricultural Magazine at the cost of the white paper on which it is printed. The American Farmer is a 16 page monthly magazine which is rapidly taking rank as one of the leading agricultural publications of the country. Each number will contain useful information for the farmer, his wife, his sons and his daughters. As it costs you nothing, suppose you try it one year. Remember, only new subscribers will receive the benefit of this offer, until the first day of February.

The thoroughbred horse presented to Gen. Grant by the Khedive of Egypt, as a gift, is a milkman, and, with the water streaming from his eyes, the milkman has brought a damage suit for $10,000 against Gen. Grant's son Ulysses. If he gains the suit, he can then buy him a river full of water and a mountain of chalk for his customers.

The National Republican Committee has fixed Chicago as the place for, and June 3rd, 1884 as the day for putting out a Presidential candidate. The representation will be, for each State five delegates-at-large, for each Congressional district two delegates and for each Representative at-large two delegates.

Millersburg (War) Department.

At home again.

The widow Josie Pollock resides at the Five Points.

Oh Lordy, My Leg! Joe Will Miller is slowly improving.

Miss Lizzie Taylor is recovering from a severe spell of sickness.

Yes, we are to have a Christmas tree. A criminal mistake corrected, and everybody is happy.

Miss Della McClintock has returned from Illinois. She will spend Christmas in Richmond, Ky.

The Lord relieved the city council from further trouble with the bicyclists by sending prohibitory weather.

People wishing to exchange western lands for property in this place will do well to call at the Deposit Bank.

Some fellow will bombard the wigwag with rocks from the stone factory unless they are cooted away pretty soon.

Only a few of the Millersburg girls follow the practice of visiting other states on prospecting tours for husbands.

It is said that one of the widows sends her bread to a poor neighbor's to be cooked, just to save the cost of fuel.

Jno. Mock thinks this weather will help the overcoat business, and will take in a partner to assist during the rush.

If a peace officer gets drunk he should be "docked" for loss of time. Rainy days count just the same as any other kind.

Charlie Turner, the coon arrested for outraging Winnie Berry, was discharged because the girl swore that Charlie didn't do it.

The Shamrock oil men didn't do much good here, but they write back that Carlisle is the easiest place gulled they have ever struck.

Miss Effie Smith is recovering from the effects of a sprained ankle, and should have a notice but she objects to having her name in the papers.

There is no use abusing Anton Amb, for "jumping" the town. He was justified in doing so. He caught sight of Jake Hughes on a bicycle and became frightened.

The city gets an occasional contribution from the crap shooters. They fight on the street over the fairness of the game and are arrested for disturbing the peace.

The ladies of the Christian church will present a real toney entertainment in a short time. This is much better than presenting to the public an alleged oyster supper.

The Barton will case will not be appealed to higher courts for probation, as was supposed. Now an administrator will be appointed, and the estate will soon be settled.

The town is still flooded with pernicious half dime literature. It is a shame that the young men—so called nice young men, devour this trash with an avidity unknown to savants.

One fool drummer attempted to cut another base drummer's throat at the Johnson House not long since. Well, fool drummers are plentiful and a general throat cutting wouldn't hurt.

The Knights of Wise Men haven't received the $1,000 from the Grand Lodge yet. They ought to appoint a committee to go down to Memphis and find out whether there is a Grand Lodge or not.

The piece of copy in this department mentioning the sudden death of Mrs. Will Smith, got lost from the copy book—hence the announcement at this late day. She had been ill but a few days, of paralysis of the bowels.

Mr. Samuel Martin, a wealthy widower in this precinct, married last week in Keokuk, Iowa, Mrs. Bettie Archer, widow of Col. Archer, and a sister of Wm., Robt., and John Tarr. The happy couple arrived home Friday night.

H. H. Hunt writes back from Florida that is so warm that he wears nothing but blouses and eats nothing but sunshine. He has found no Young Men's Christian Association, nor Methodist prayer meetings down there and still he's happy.

At least six of the young men are complaining of sore hands. All but one use a sling. Nobody knows how they got hurt—if they are hurt, or where they caught it—if that's what's the matter with them. Geiger says he got his in a street car; that's some improvement on the old way.

"B'RRR B'AR."

MILLERSBURG, Ky., Dec. 13, '83.

BOURBON NEWS.—I cannot let as novel anniversary entertainment pass in our little town without giving the News a short sketch of it: Dr. Stitt invited a few of his many friends, to his anniversary birthday supper, on the evening of the 10th inst., 7 o'clock. The News cannot guess to save him the kind of supper it was to be. He invited us to a mush and milk supper—this is just what his card of invitation says "Milk and Mush Supper;" what do you think of it? There were ten or fifteen of us; we were invited to the parlor as we came to the door to a cheerful fire where we chatted and told yarns for a short time when we were invited to supper, and sure enough it was a mush and milk supper served, to which I assure you we done ample justice, and in the centre of the table was a row of delicious fruits—apples, oranges, grapes, bananas, etc., in abundance; about the time we were invited to supper his two daughters, Mrs. Turney and his single daughter Miss Jimmie and a Miss Conyers arrived from Paris, and while at supper and after, gave us fine music on the piano accompanied with the voice. The Dr. invited among his guests the Rev. I guess it was to keep the boys from getting to be too rowdy, but he didn't have done that, for there was nary a drop, heady of the boys were not very young, at least some of them were not. Don't you think it was a novel anniversary supper? Well, it was, and milk, but it's just like the Dr. Long life to him; may he live to see many happy birthdays.
